

COMMERCE BODY TO RUN BOOSTERS' BOAT

Craft Will Be Sent Down River in Effort to Improve Trade With Smaller Cities.

To boost trade between Washington and smaller cities near here, the Chamber of Commerce will run a special boat, the "Boosters' Boat," as far as Leonardtown or Piney Point, carrying all the more important points.

The trip also will be in the nature of an outing, and will require two days. The date has not been determined, but it is expected that the boat will be sent down the river at the last night's meeting of the board of directors, and D. J. Kaufman will report to the full chamber Tuesday night.

At the request of the Board of Trade, President Callahan was authorized to appoint a committee of fifteen to cooperate with similar committees from the Board of Trade and Retail Merchants' Association in the establishment of a line of boats along the Potomac. All three of the local trade bodies have agreed to these committees and it is expected the joint committee will be called together within a few days.

Give Suffrage Reversal.

The Chamber's directors put a somewhat unexpected stamp of disapproval on a committee of fifteen to cooperate with similar committees from the Board of Trade and Retail Merchants' Association in the establishment of a line of boats along the Potomac. All three of the local trade bodies have agreed to these committees and it is expected the joint committee will be called together within a few days.

John Dolph, chairman of the convention committee, reported that the National Conservation Congress has been secured for Washington through the efforts of the committee, and will meet on November 15, 16, and 17. President Callahan was authorized to appoint a committee of fifteen to cooperate with similar committees from the Board of Trade and Retail Merchants' Association in the establishment of a line of boats along the Potomac. All three of the local trade bodies have agreed to these committees and it is expected the joint committee will be called together within a few days.

Resigns as Chairman.

The president also was authorized to appoint twenty-five Chamber representatives to attend the exhibition of the National Geographic Society, to be held in the District, when they will be requested to act as an advisory committee for the exhibition. The Chamber also was authorized to appoint a committee of fifteen to cooperate with similar committees from the Board of Trade and Retail Merchants' Association in the establishment of a line of boats along the Potomac. All three of the local trade bodies have agreed to these committees and it is expected the joint committee will be called together within a few days.

HOSPITAL ROMANCE LEADS TO MARRIAGE

Nurse Weds Man Whom She Attended When He Was in Institution Last Fall.

A romance which had its inception last fall when Edward George Portner was a patient in the George Washington Hospital, culminated last night in his marriage to Miss Anna Ford Moncur, a graduate nurse, whose tender care and gradual sympathy restored him to physical health, but gave him an acute mental disease that only Dr. Daniel Cupid knew how to diagnose.

The wedding took place at St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church, Sixteenth and H streets northwest, the Rev. E. Slater Dunlap, assistant rector, officiating. The ceremony was very private. Mr. and Mrs. Portner left for Atlantic City, whence they will go to the North-east for the summer.

Miss Moncur was a member of the class of nurses which graduated from the George Washington University four years ago. Mr. Portner graduated from the same school at the same time. He has been living at the Bellevue Hotel here. He is president of the Capital Construction Company.

MISS DAINGERFIELD MARRIED TO ENSIGN

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU, ALEXANDRIA, VA., JUNE 5.

Miss Beall Daingerfield, daughter of Mr. William Balmour Daingerfield, was married to Ensign Henry Blow Le Bourgeois, U. S. N., by the Rev. P. P. Phillips, last night.

An orchestra from the United States ship Dolphin, accompanied on the organ by Sherman H. Fowler, played the wedding march. The maid of honor was Miss Harriett Daingerfield Love, niece of the bride, and the bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Campbell, of Charles Town, Va.; Miss Kate Edmunds, of Lynchburg, Va.; Miss Sue Mumford, of Annapolis, Md., and the Misses Elizabeth Dulaney, Herbert, Harriet Douglas, and Esther Burke, of this city. Eastern Jules James, U. S. N., acted as best man, and the ushers were Lieut. Patrick Bellinger, Lieut. William T. Mallon, Paymaster John H. Knapp, Ensign Archibald Hugh Douglas, Ensign James R. Barry, and Ensign Godfrey De Chevalier.

A reception at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. North Washington street, followed the ceremony.

This city furnished another candidate for the lieutenant governorship yesterday in the person of Alexander J. Wedderburn, editor of the Alexandria Sunday Times. Following by a single day the announcement of the candidacy of Lewis H. Machen, editor of the Alexandria News, Mr. Wedderburn's termination to enter the lists came as a distinct surprise to local politicians.

Ernest L. Robey, of Herndon, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the House of Representatives in the fight for the Democratic nomination, which is equivalent to election.

One hundred and ten Masons left today on a special train for Philadelphia, where they will be the guests of the William L. Elkins Lodge.

Mrs. Walter U. Varney and son, Thomas, left yesterday for a two months' visit in Muskogee, Okla.

Miss Stella Pettit and Frank Fyfe were married Tuesday evening at the residence of the First Baptist Church, Fairfax county. The present incumbent, the Rev. Dr. W. F. Watson officiating.
